

Year 1

- Allison Aiello, PhD Neighborhood cultural isolation and biomarkers of cardiovascular disease among Latinos; 2-year pilot
- Amy Schulz, PhD Characterizing the distribution and social correlates of metabolic syndrome in a Tri-ethnic urban sample; 2-year pilot
- Sharon Kardia, PhD Genetics Equity: Education, Research, and Policy Outreach Pilot Project; 2-year pilot

Year 2

- DeMarc Hickson, PhD Measuring characteristics of the neighborhood context in the Jackson MSA; 2-year pilot
- Briana Mezuk, PhD The influence of work-related and financial stressors, workplace discrimination and retirement on blood pressure in older adults: a focus on the effects of race and age-cohort; 1-year pilot
- Emily Nicklett, MSW Examining the role of sociodemographic characteristics in diabetic experience and outcomes; 1-year pilot
- Yan Sun, PhD A comparative study of the prevalence and predictors of hypertension in Chinese living in China vs. living in the US; 1-year pilot
- Marc Turenne, PhD Disparities in access to higher quality health care: access to and choice of an initial renal dialysis provider; 1-year pilot

Year 3

- Cleopatra Abdou, PhD Stereotype threat and health care decisions in African Americans; 1-year pilot
- Lawrence Bielak, DDS, MPH Neighborhood change, inflammation and coronary artery calcification in an African-American cohort; 1-year pilot
- Flojaune Griffin, MPH PhD-Candidate Relationships between skin pigmentation, vitamin D and blood pressure; 1-year pilot
- Amit Mathur, MD Understanding racial and ethnic disparities in access to and outcomes from liver transplantation; 1-year pilot

Year 4

- Erin Rees Clayton, PhD Pathogen Burden and Its Social, Psychological, and Behavioral Correlates in Detroit; 1-year pilot
- Katherine King, MA, PhD-Candidate Implications of the Urban Built Environment for Neighborly Social Interaction; 1-year pilot
- Brenda Campbell Jenkins, PhD Examining the association of psychosocial stress and obesity in African American Men and Women: The Jackson Heart Study; 1-year pilot

Year 5

- Malavika Subramanyam, MD, MPH, DSc Socioeconomic patterning of cardiovascular disease risk factors among Asian Indians: a cross cultural comparison of the United States and India; 1-year pilot
- Andrew Smith, MD, PhD Associating renal sinus fat (RSF) with hypertension, anti-hypertensive medication burden, and chronic kidney disease in African Americans in the GENOA study; 1-year pilot
- Katherine Wilson, MD Sleep habits and environments, and intervention to improve them, for preschool children in low socioeconomic settings; 1-year pilot
- Alethea Hill, PhD, MSN, RN, ANP-BC The associations between perceived discrimination, coping styles, social support and cumulative biological risk among African American men and women; 1-year pilot