Three Tenure-Track Assistant Professor Positions in Epidemiology

The University of Michigan School of Public Health invites applications for three tenure-track assistant professor positions in the Department of Epidemiology. Our highly interdisciplinary Department is home to internationally recognized researchers using a broad range of epidemiologic methods, including state of the art laboratory techniques, diverse field methods, bioinformatics, and statistical and mathematical models. Our Department has highly successful masters and doctoral level training programs. Applicants should have advanced training in epidemiology or a related field.

To apply, please provide: a statement of current and future research plans, teaching philosophy and experience, complete curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendation. Send to: Junior Faculty Search Committee, Department of Epidemiology, 1415 Washington Heights, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-2029 or electronically to emilysw@umich.edu. Review of applications will begin December 1, 2009 and continue until a suitable candidate is identified. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply and the University is supportive of the needs of dual career couples. The University of Michigan is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.
