

Job Title: Research Assistant I

Job ID: Student Employment Office website, Ref# 16236

Funding Source: Work-Study preferred

Employer: Department of Epidemiology

Category: Professional/Administrative

Job Description: The Department of Epidemiology is seeking graduate students (work-study preferred) interested in social and life course determinants of infectious diseases, links between infections and chronic diseases, and non-pharmaceutical interventions to work as research assistants.

Educational value of this job: As part of our research team, the student will gain knowledge and experience of infectious disease studies in the community setting. In addition, the student will enhance research skills, including statistical analysis.

Job Requirements:

- Current student in the School of Public Health
- Extremely reliable
- Demonstrated, advanced SAS skills

Number of Available Openings: 2

Hours: 10.0 to 40.0 hours per week

Compensation: $14.00/hour

Time Frame: Fall/Winter/Spring/Summer

Contact Person: Rebecca Marie Coulborn

Email Address: coulborn@umich.edu

Work Location: UM Ann Arbor Campus

Phone Number 734-764-2372